

Foundations for Local Public Health Practice: Tools Needed to Get the Job Done

The course is designed for Massachusetts public health workers who carry out routine and emergency environmental and population-focused health functions.

Important Points:

- Course runs June 2017 through November 2017
- Offered in a blended format:
In-person classroom sessions, live webinars and self-paced, online trainings
- Attendance at ALL in-person and webinar dates is required for graduation
- Registration information is on the back of this document

COST:

- $100 for members of MHOA, MEHA or MAPHN
 - $150 for non-members
- [Inability to pay the registrations fees will not necessarily preclude registration to course, please see information on next page]

Suggested Audience:

- Staff (i.e. Agents, Directors, Emergency Preparedness Coordinators or Planners, Environmental Health Sanitarians or Specialists, Health Inspectors, Health Officers, Sanitarians, Public Health Nurses)
- Governing Bodies (Board of Health members -elected or appointed, Commissioners)
- Professionals new to the field, or professionals with experience and an interest in advancing knowledge and skills

Important Dates:

In-person Classes—

June 14, September 6 and November 8

Webinars—

July 19, September 13

Additional Funding Provided By:

Massachusetts Association of Public Health Nurses
Massachusetts Department of Public Health
Massachusetts Environmental Health Association
Massachusetts Health Officers Association

To view more information and timeline, go to: <https://tinyurl.com/Foundations-17>

This training and all related documents and materials has been developed by the Local Public Health Institute of Massachusetts through a contract with the Office of Preparedness and Emergency Management at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, with funding from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as part of the Public Health Emergency Preparedness Program. The New England Public Health Training Center (NEPHTC) also contributed to the training. NEPHTC, managed by Boston University School of Public Health, is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under grant number UB6HP27877. This information or content and conclusions are those of the author and should not be construed as the official position or policy of, nor should any endorsements be inferred by CDC's Public Health Emergency Preparedness Program, HRSA, HHS or the U.S. Government.

Boston University School of Public Health
Activist Lab

Foundations for Local Public Health Practice: Tools Needed to Get the Job Done

Name _____

Job Title _____

Agency _____

Day Phone _____

Email _____

Years of Experience in Local Public Health _____

Size of the population you serve _____

Participation in the course requires:

- 3 in-person classroom sessions (June 14, September 6, and November 8)
- 2 live webinars (July 19, September 13)
- 14 On Your Time (self-paced, online) trainings
- ATTENDING ALL SESSIONS IS REQUIRED FOR GRADUATION

The supervisor (or BOH Director) is in agreement that the trainee may participate in the course, as described above.

_____ Date: _____
Supervisor signature

Please print and mail this registration form, along with a check made out to MHOA to:

MHOA
197 Micah Terrace
Milton, NH 03851

Cost*

Members of MAPHN, MEHA, or MHOA - $100 ☐

Non-Members - $150 ☐

Members of MAPHN, MEHA, or MHOA have reduced rates as their associations have contributed towards the costs of delivering this course.*

If you are unable to afford the fee, please contact lphi@bu.edu and explain your situation; the inability to pay the fee will not automatically bar you from joining the course. Requests for waivers will be handled on a case by case basis.

Once your registration in the course is confirmed, you will be sent an enrollment key to access the online aspects of the course.