

LOCAL PUBLIC HEALTH
INSTITUTE OF MASSACHUSETTS

Foundations for Local Public Health Practice: Tools Needed to Get the Job Done

The course is designed for Massachusetts public health workers who carry out routine and emergency environmental and population-focused health functions.

Important Points:

- Course runs late October 2019 through April 2020
- Offered in a blended format:
In-person classroom sessions, live webinars and self-paced, online trainings
- Attendance at ALL in-person and webinar dates is required for graduation
- Registration information is on second page

COST:

- $150
[Inability to pay the registrations fees will not necessarily preclude registration to course, please see information on next page]

Suggested Audience:

- Staff (i.e. Agents, Directors, Emergency Preparedness Coordinators or Planners, Environmental Health Sanitarians or Specialists, Health Inspectors, Health Officers, Sanitarians, Public Health Nurses)
- Governing Bodies (Board of Health members - elected or appointed, Commissioners)

Important Dates:

In-person Classes—
November 13,
February 12, and April 8

Webinars—
December 18 and February 19

To view more information and timeline, go to: <https://tinyurl.com/Foundations19-20>

This material and the trainings mentioned herein were supported by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health (MDPH) with funds made available by the Grant or Cooperative Agreement Number 6 NB01OT009172-01-02, funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Boston University School of Public Health
Activist Lab

Foundations for Local Public Health Practice: Tools Needed to Get the Job Done

Name _____

Job Title _____

Agency _____

Town/City _____

Day Phone _____

Email _____

Years of Experience in Local Public Health _____

Size of the population you serve _____

Participation in the course requires:

- 3 in-person classroom sessions (November 13, February 12, and April 8)
- 2 live webinars (December 18 and February 19)
- 15 On Your Time (self-paced, online) trainings
- ATTENDING ALL SESSIONS IS REQUIRED FOR GRADUATION

The supervisor (or BOH Director) is in agreement that the trainee may participate in the course, as described above.

Supervisor signature

Date: _____

ADDRESS

To sign up for course, please:

Print and mail this form, along with payment

OR

Email information requested above with payment information – lphi@bu.edu

Payment accepted: check, purchase order, or credit card

Please make out checks to "Trustees of Boston University"

Training Manager
BU SPH Activist Lab
715 Albany Street
Talbot Building, 509E
Boston, MA 02118

Cost*: $150

If you are unable to afford the fee, please contact lphi@bu.edu and explain your situation; the inability to pay the fee will not automatically bar you from joining the course. Requests for waivers will be handled on a case by case basis.

Once your registration in the course is confirmed, you will be sent an enrollment key to access the online aspects of the course.